RUNNING ON THE NORTHWESTERN

Samuel Robinson, Express Messenger, Crushed in His Car—Several Greek Laborers Severely Injured, None Fatally.

Kansas City, Mo., June 26.—North bound Missouri Pacific passenger train No. 130 collided head-on with east bound passenger train No. 532 between Piper and Menager Junction, fourteen miles southeast of Leavenworth, shortly after noon yesterday.

Samuel Robinson, Pacific express messenger on the north bound train, was killed, and fifteen passengers, most of whom were foreign laborers, were injured. Both locomotives were demolished and the baggage car on the northbound train was telescoped.

None of the train crews was injured, the engineers and firemen jumping after having reversed their engines. The dead and injured were brought to Kansas City by a relief train.

Both trains were running at a rate of speed which was variously estimated at from thirty to forty miles an hour when they met on a curve and trestle. The engines remained on the track and all of the cars of the south bound train did likewise, but the combination mail and smoking car on the north bound train, in which the foreign laborers were riding, left the track and rolled down the embankment. All sustained injuries, but it is believed that none will prove fatal.

Samuel Robinson, the express messenger, died in less than thirty minutes after the collision. He had sustained a deep cut on the head, his right arm and leg were broken, and his right side crushed. He was conscious until his death. His home was in Omaha. There was no medical aid on the train, but there was one professional nurse who did effective service. The responsibility for the wreck has not yet been fixed. It is believed to have been a mistake in the handling of orders. The agent at Menager Junction is Mary Kessler. The south bound train stopped there for orders. While the agent refused to talk over the accident, a bystander heard her say shortly after the train pulled out that the conductor had forgotten to take his orders.

The engineer on the north bound train was Michael Phelan, of Kansas City, Kan., and the conductor, Geo. Phelan. The crew of the south bound train was Engineer Hubert and Conductor Gunner. They crews were brought back with the relief train.

One of the passengers on the north bound train was S. W. Witmer, of 2033 North Tremont street, Kansas City, Kan., and the conductor, George Phelan. Witmer boarded the train at the Kansas City, Kan., station of the Northwestern. According to Mr. Witmer, the north bound train was running at a rate of about twenty-five miles an hour. He was in the second passenger coach back of the express car and was not injured.

The north bound train is the regular Omaha train of the Missouri Pacific, which, because of the high water, had been detoured over the Northwestern tracks by way of Leavenworth, Kan.

W. C. McClain, of Coffeyville, Kan., who sustained injuries to his knee in the wreck, arrived in the city about 5 o'clock in the afternoon, looking for a doctor. "High water was directly the cause," said Mr. McClain. "The Missouri Pacific, unable to run on its own tracks, was going to Omaha on the Northwestern tracks. Too much water and too many trains on one track was what did it. We were going full speed when we met. Both engines are panned into each other almost up to their tenders. The opposing mail cars were unroofed and the smoker on the train on which I was riding was overturned. It was a party of twenty-five or thirty Greeks. Five of them were badly hurt. Passengers riding in other cars escaped all but slight injuries."

Samuel Robinson, the express messenger who was killed, had been in the express business for twenty-five years. For the last five years he had been employed by the Pacific Express Co. He was 55 years old and leaves a wife and four daughters. Mrs. Robinson and three of the daughters, Maud, Kate and Helen, make their home in Omaha. Another daughter, Mrs. Elmer Fletcher, lives in Indianapolis, Ind.

Mrs. Robinson left Omaha Wednesday for a visit with her daughter in Indianapolis and was informed of the death of her husband immediately upon her arrival at that city. Mrs. Robinson's sister, Mrs. William Pookwater, lives at 135 Olive street, this city. The body was brought to Kansas City last night and now lies in the Carroll-Davidson undertaking rooms to await the coroner's inquest. Mr. Robinson was a Mason, an Odd Fellow and a Modern Woodman.

WILL NAME A FAIR GIRL

AS CO-RESPONDENT IN THE DI-VORCE SUIT AGAINST FRANK GOULD.

SENSATIONAL FEATURE DEVELOPS

It is Alleged That Frank is Educating a Beautiful Female for the Operatic Stage—Trip on Mr. Gould's Yacht.

New York, June 26.—In the suit for absolute divorce that was begun against Frank J. Gould by Mrs. Gould's lawyers, there will be named a beautiful young woman with operatic aspirations.

Mr. Gould has had no hint of the specific act or acts of misconduct that will be set forth in his wife's action, as he was only served with a summons.

It was learned yesterday that the most sensational feature in the action will deal with a yachting episode, in which the young singer occupies the leading role. It will be alleged that while cruising in Nova Scotian waters on his yacht Helenita, the young millionaire was accompanied by the beautiful girl with the golden voice.

This young woman has never been on the stage, but her voice was being trained by the best masters in Europe, and it will be said, at Mr. Gould's expense. The specific act of misconduct with which Mr. Gould is charged is placed on the yacht when it was anchored off Sidney, Nova Scotia. The testimony will be furnished by former members of the Helenita's crew.

Those who have shared Mrs. Gould's secrets concerning the charges she will make in her divorce suit, declared that Frank J. Gould will receive a tremendous shock when he reads the full complaint against him. He, it is said, has long felt confident that such evidence could never be unearthed and offered against him.

THE BRIDE-TO-BE IS KNOWN

Rev. O. B. Staples Is to Wed Mrs.
Edna Sharp Next Monday.

Mrs. Edna Sharp, eldest daughter of Prof. John P. Gass, superintendent of the public schools of Sedalia, is the bride-to-be who is to be united in marriage to Rev. O. B. Staples, president of Spaulding Female college, of Muskogee, Okla., in this city, next Monday.

Mrs. Sharp is one of Sedalia's most popular young matrons, and formerly was instructor in music at Hardin college at Mexico, Mo., and later at Spaulding college. She is now making her home with her parents in this city.

The intention of Rev. Staples and Mrs. Sharp was to keep the news of the affair a secret until after the solemnization of the event, but after the publication in yesterday's Democrat-Sentinel the name of the bride-to-be was divulged.

In both parties being arrested. Gurn was fined $5 in police court yesterday. By agreement between the attorneys, Judge Clark continued the cases of George Dir and James Stout, charged with stealing brass from the City Water company, until July 10. Both men were released on $100 bond each.

HE RECOGNIZES HIS WIFE

SURGEONS BELIEVE GEORGE
HARRISON WILL SOON RE-GAIN MEMORY.

AN OPERATION NOT BE NECESSARY

The Kansas Editor Who Disappeared
Several Months Ago and Was Recently Located on the Pacific Coast.

Topeka, June 26.—George B. Harrison, the son of T. W. Harrison, Topeka's wealthy ex-mayor, has recovered his memory sufficiently to entirely recognize his wife.

It was stated at his home last afternoon that his attempted recognition of other members of his family was barren of result. "We thought Wednesday night when he came," said his father-in-law, Henry Bennett, "that he knew the rest of us, but we are not sure yet, and are not over-urging him."

"The doctors examined him and stated that they believe he will soon regain his memory and be all right. They are not yet ready to say that they will perform an operation on his brain to remove what is supposed to be a blood clot from the blows he received at Garden City."

Harrison was taken out by his family yesterday for long walks, and an effort is being made to jog his numb memory by letting him see parts of the city with which he was very familiar.

Harrison spent some time with his father, mother and sisters, but they, too, doubt very much whether he knows them.

DENIED HE WAS "BAR FLY"

This Scrap Took Place Near Postoffice Last Night.

A well known young man of this city, who travels in the interest of a medicine house, was quite badly beaten by a young man of East Sedalia in the vicinity of the postoffice last evening.

The origin of the trouble was due to an alleged remark made by the traveling man that the gang to which the East Sedalia belonged was composed of only "barflies."

The traveling man denied that he made the remark, but his explanation was not satisfactory, in consequence of which he was thumped quite severely. There were no arrests.

INJURED IN BOSTON

Delegates to the General Convention of Women's Clubs Badly Hurt.

Newport, R. I., June 26.—Two women delegates to the general convention of women's clubs meeting in Boston were dangerously hurt and ten others more or less seriously injured here today when a trolley coach in which they were riding capsize on the steep hill of the Bath road. The identity of the injured and the nature of the injuries are withheld by the hospital authorities.

Rumor of a Wedding.

A street rumor is current to the effect that a well known Ohio street druggist, hailing from Morristown county, who makes his home on West Fifth street, is soon to be married to a pretty and popular young lady of Southeast Missouri, whose visit to this city recently is said to have caused a palpitation of more than one heart in the Queen City.

THE STATE "FELL DOWN"

COULD NOT CONVICT A DOCTOR OF HAVING WRITTEN WHIS-KY PRESCRIPTIONS.

ANOTHER CASE DECIDED BY COURT

Still a Third One Was Continued—Litigation That Resulted From the City of Columbia
Having Gone "Dry."

Columbia, Mo., June 26.—The three cases against Dr. A. M. Conway for the illegal writing of whisky prescriptions, which were up in court Wednesday, were by far the most important cases that have yet been up since the adoption of local option. The circumstances were so peculiar and the status of the doctor so unique as to make the case a peculiarly interesting one. The jury stood eight for conviction and four for acquittal.

According to the evidence introduced at the trial, Dr. Conway is a native of Boone county. He has practiced his profession more or less continuously in the county since 1874. A number of the leading citizens of Columbia were put on the witness stand who testified to that fact and to the further fact that, so far as their knowledge went, his reputation for truth and veracity had never been questioned.

The doctor was practicing long before the present law concerning the revocation of license went into effect and it seems that the courts have held that such a physician is not subject to the authority of the state board of health, which of late has been dealing rather severely with those who prescribe the drink that turns men's heads.

That Dr. Conway has been writing large numbers of prescriptions no one can dispute. That he has not fully complied with the law in every instance was the thing Prosecuting Attorney Harris tried to prove in the three cases brought before the court. These cases are all interesting.

In the first case he was charged with unlawfully making and issuing a prescription for one quart of whisky for T. E. Lancaster, on May 27, last.

The evidence showed that Lancaster requested a prescription, although Dr. Conway was not his physician and although he had needed no medicine for a long time.

The doctor refused the prescription until Lancaster told him he was not "feeling well;" the doctor took his temperature, etc., and decided that he needed something else worse than whisky.

But Lancaster wanted "Old Crow," so he insisted on the whisky prescription. The doctor wrote out one for a half pint, but Lancaster reminded him that he wanted "Old Crow" and it came in quart bottles. Another prescription was then written for the quart.

The excuse given for changing the amount was that "Old Crow" was the best, and the doctor wanted him to have the "best" medicine—and all this after he had said that other medicine would do him more good than whisky, and after he had started to write a prescription for a half pint (of inferior stuff).

The case went to the jury and the body could not decide upon a verdict.

The second case was for writing an unlawful prescription for C. G. Robinson for one-half pint of liquor. Here again the doctor was careful to inform his patient that he needed some other medicine worse than whisky, but the patient insisted and got the whisky. This case was passed on by the court and decided against the state. It was not nearly as strong a case as the first one.

The third case, one for writing a prescription for N. Hickam for a quart of liquor, was continued.

It is very unfortunate that the state's attorney had no chance to show to the jury in the first case that Dr. Conway has little practice in Columbia outside the prescription business.

Wed by Judge Rickman.

L. R. Adams, a dentist, formerly of this city, who for six years has been engaged in traveling, and Miss Pearl Dayton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Dayton, were quietly married by Judge J. B. Rickman at his office at 1 o'clock this afternoon.

Mr. Adams is a young man of sterling character and his bride is a pretty and refined young lady. They will go to St. Louis to live.

Part of the Committee Home.

Mayor J. L. Babcock, C. C. Lawson, W. M. Harris and E. R. Andier returned this morning from St. Louis, where they went on business concerning the Missouri Pacific and the city of Sedalia, but W. H. Barnett and Hon. E. E. Johnston will not be home until tomorrow.

A special to the Democrat-Sentinel yesterday afternoon gave the result of the committee's conference with General Manager A. W. Sullivan, of the Missouri Pacific, and there is nothing further to add today.

PASTOR IS DRUMMED OUT

FIFTY CHILDREN IN NEW JER-SEY MADE LIFE MISERA-BLE FOR HIM.

Leaves Dwindling Congregation, Going to Brooklyn, City of Churches, Where He Hopes for Better Appreciation.

Trenton, N. J., June 26.—To be drummed out of town by half a hundred little children was the fate yesterday of the Rev. Jarvis Wordon, who came here four years ago and established an independent church, naming it St. Thomas' Congregation. The embarrassment of the clergyman was due solely to his idea of immortality.

Recently the minister made complaint to the police that the two young daughters of a neighbor were doing acrobatic stunts with bloomers in their yard.

He created a sensation by making such a report, but he aroused the anger of the neighborhood by his action, because the investigation showed that the children were exercising in a manner prescribed by their parents.

It was announced yesterday that Dr. Wordon was going to leave the city to make his home in Brooklyn. All the youngsters in his neighborhood gathered in front of his home last afternoon, armed with tin pans and other noise-making utensils.

As the minister left the house with his suit case in his hand the children began their serenade. Dr. Wordon was so much embarrassed that he looked for aid, but the children were encouraged by their parents, and a policeman who witnessed the sight simply turned his back.

The preacher, finding his attempts to drive the urchins away fruitless, leaped upon a swiftly moving trolley car to dodge his youthful tormentors.

For the first two years of Dr. Wordon's reign in Trenton he prospered, as he was aided by some of the most prominent residents.

However, his congregation became indignant when he had several small boys arrested for disturbing his church services. His neighbors on this occasion became angry and he was forced to move to another section of the city. Then his congregation began to dwindle.

Believing it was better to make a change in the scene of his religious labors, the clergyman decided to make a try in the City of Churches.

Theft of a Slot Machine From the Arlington Pharmacy.

The penny chewing gum slot machine owned by the Arlington Pharmacy and located in front of the pharmacy was stolen and carried off on West Broadway, west of Barrett avenue, some time last night, battered to pieces and a portion of the contents stolen.

Forty pennies were left in the machine, the thieves evidently having been frightened before completing their work.

The battered machine was found by H. C. Castle, the dairyman, early this morning and returned to the owner.

HADLEY FRANK ABOUT IT

HE ADMITS HIS ADMINISTRA-TION FAR OVERSHAD-OWS CROW'S.

MAKES REPORT OF 15,000 WORDS

His Predecessor Tried Hard, but It Remained to Him to Score
Against Trusts, and That, Too, Economically.

Jefferson City, Mo., June 26.—Attorney General Herbert S. Hadley has issued a 15,000-word statement comparing the work done in the legal department of the state under his administration with that under his predecessor, E. C. Crow. Special emphasis is laid on a comparison of the expenditures in the office during the two terms.

According to the figures, Attorney General Crow spent $116,858.40 for office expenses and litigation during his tenure. Hadley declares he has spent only $100,000, and $35,000 of that was expended in the maximum freight rate hearing at the instance of the board of railroad and warehouse commissioners.

He compliments Mr. Crow for his ability and energy, but says that in eight years he was in office he only prosecuted three anti-trust proceedings, the fire insurance companies, the beef packers at Kansas City, and the tobacco corporation. The insurance companies were fined $1,000 each, the packers $5,000 each, while the tobacco people escaped punishment.

Mr. Hadley reviews in detail the anti-trust proceedings which he has instituted. Regarding the Standard Oil investigation, he declares that, although the supreme court of the United States has not yet rendered a final decision, the results of the litigation forced the corporation to disclose its plan of organization and business methods and this furnished evidence for suits in six states and by the national government.

The Republic Oil company, he claims, was forced out of business and the Waters Pierce Oil company and the Standard Oil company were required to sell to all who would purchase. In addition to these results independent oil companies have been given an impetus and thirty have entered the state since the institution of the suits.

Referring to the insurance company litigation, Hadley asserts that the prosecutions instituted by Mr. Crow, although the intentions were good, did not result in any correction of the evils. The republican gubernatorial candidate contends that he compelled the companies to reform their business methods and reduce their rates by holding the fear of prosecution over their heads. Eight hundred thousand dollars annually was saved for the state by the anti-trust prosecutions.

Mr. Hadley declares the facts developed in his investigation of the maximum freight rates were responsible for the passage of the two-cent rate bill by the last legislature. The same investigation, he says, increased the value of railroad property $10,000,000 by the assessment of the state board of equalization, and the state was benefited to the extent of $175,000 a year.

An account is given of the litigation in St. Louis county which resulted in the suppression of the Delmar Jockey club and later in the suppression of the lid clubs. Credit is given his assistant, John Kennish, for the latter part of the work.

Mr. Hadley tells in detail how in 1907 he induced the railroad companies to discontinue giving passes by threatening to have the right of the company to give free transportation tested in the courts. He also takes credit for the fact that no passes were issued to any members of the two state conventions which recently met.

Particular emphasis is laid on his activity in the state board of equalization and the fact that during the last three years the assessed value of public service corporations in this state has been increased $30,107,209.79.

HULL TO BE THE NOMINEE

Judge Prouty Practically Gives Up Congressional Fight.

Des Moines, Ia., June 26.—Friends of Capt. J. A. T. Hull declare that all doubt has been swept away and that he will be the republican nominee for congress on the straight ticket next fall.

Their claim followed notice given by Judge Prouty withdrawing his demand for a recount of the votes in Bloomfield township.

While his petition to throw out the entire vote in that precinct because the polls were kept open after the legal closing hour is still pending, it is not expected that the board will grant his plea, and the contest in Polk county is ended by this action.

ATHLETES TO GO ABROAD

WILL SAIL FROM NEW YORK FOR LONDON TO COMPETE IN OLYMPIC GAMES.

A TRULY POWERFUL AGGREGATION

The Team Is Thoroughly Cosmopolitan in Its Construction—New York Athletes Occupy Center of the Big Stage.

New York, June 26.—What is perhaps the most powerful aggregation of athletes ever brought together is assembled in the metropolis today, and will sail tomorrow for England, there to compete next month in the London Olympic games for the championship of the world. The pick of the best track and field performers of other nations will meet in Shepherd's Bush stadium in a series of competitions, and it will virtually be America against the world, since the athletes of Europe have combined to wrest the honors from Uncle Sam that he won at Athens.

Secretary James E. Sullivan, of the American Olympic committee, is already in London and has about completed arrangements for the reception and final training of the team. The boys will not be allowed to do any sight-seeing or indulge in any recreation until after the games are over, when what is apt to be a tour of triumph will be undertaken.

The team is thoroughly cosmopolitan in its constitution. The only qualifications that governed the selecting committee were citizenship and ability. Two full blooded Indians, Frank Mount Pleasant and Lewis Tewana, of Carlisle Indian school, are included, while two negroes also have found places. They are J. B. Taylor, University of Pennsylvania, and F. Le Roy Holmes, University of Chicago. Germany will be represented in George N. Mehnert, National Turn Verein, while Ireland's former sons form no inconsequential part of the list, but in spite of the nationality of these contestants, they are now all citizens of the United States.

Collegiate institutions have reserved full recognition in the selection of the team. Pennsylvania, Princeton, Yale, Cornell, Dartmouth, Chicago, Michigan, Marquette, Illinois and Virginia will be represented. Harvard and Columbia are the only two universities of importance that failed to contribute to the athletic ranks although several Crimson athletes are named on the supplement list.

Among the athletic clubs, New York occupies the center of the stage. Fifteen members of the New York Athletic club have been selected, while the Irish-American Athletic club is only one behind its local rival, Brooklyn will have two representatives, Chicago twelve, Boston three, Newark two, Brookline, Mass., one, St. Louis two, San Francisco one and Portland, Ore., one.

The world's record holders will compete on the team. They are Melvin W. Sheppard, A. C. Gilbert, W. R. Dray, Martin J. Sheridan, Ray Ewry, A. K. Dearborn, Matt J. McGrath, C. J. Bacon, Forrest C. Smithson and C. M. Daniels. With the exception of the walks and long distance runs, America should win every event won at Athens in 1906, with very bright prospects of landing several others. The sprints should be safe with such men as Reector, Cartmell, Robertson and others of almost equal speed. Forrest Smithson and Shaw will be able to account for the hurdles. J. B. Taylor and his quarter-milers should hold everything safe in the 400-meter event. Melvin W. Sheppard and several other men will place the 800-meter run in the American column of victories, and a clean sweep will likely be scored in the pole vault and 16-pound hammer. The running high and broad jump and other events are likely to be won by the Americans.

In Halstead, the wonderful mile runner, America has a possible winner in the mile. America was not expected to secure a place in this event at Athens, but Lightbody pulled off the event, and Halstead is better than Lightbody ever was. If Halstead stands the climate it will require 4:13 to beat him, and in spite of the reports of good times made in England this summer, it will require a very speedy man to take Halstead's measure.

After the Olympic games are over the Irish-Americans will travel to Scotland for a dual meet in Edinburgh, the date of which will be announced later. On August 1 the wing-footed team will compete in Dublin against an all-Irish aggregation. This meet is expected to become one of the most important ever held in Ireland. Leaving Ireland August 2, the team will make its way to Stockholm, Sweden, where the I. A. A. C.

ECZEMA IS NOW CURABLE.

A St. Louis chemist, after many years of careful experimenting and investigation, has discovered a simple remedy that has cured hundreds of cases of eczema that had been pronounced incurable. This chemist believed that eczema and all itching skin diseases were of local origin and were caused by germs which attacked and fed on the skin. He began to search for a remedy that would destroy these germs, and found that by combining the active principles of certain well known vegetable drugs, and applying them locally, the first application stopped the itching and burning, and if used persistently would drive all germs and their poisons to the surface of the skin and destroy them, leaving a nice, clear, healthy skin. He gave this remarkable remedy the suggestive name of Zemo, and since its introduction to the public Zemo has proved a very popular remedy and it today recognized the most successful and meritorious remedy ever produced for the relief and cure of eczema and all diseases of the skin and scalp.

Mr. Dan Wilcox, the druggist, endorses and recommends Zemo and says that he believes Zemo to be an honest medicine and will do all that is claimed for it.

MR. BELL IS TO PRESIDE

CALIFORNIAN TO BE TEMPORARY CHAIRMAN OF DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

THE KEYNOTE IS BRIEFLY OUTLINED

Increase of Child Slavery and the Growth of Illiteracy Are to Be Featured in the Party Platform.

Los Angeles, Cal., June 26.—Theodore A. Bell, the young attorney of Napa, and former nominee for governor, will be the temporary chairman of the National Democratic Convention at Denver. This was confirmed yesterday when Mr. Bell received a letter from Wm. Jennings Bryan, in which the leader outlined briefly some of the issues which probably will be forced upon the Republicans.

Mr. Bell refused to make public the full contents of the letter, but from conversation with him it was inferred that one of the most prominent planks, and one upon which the strongest fight would be made, will be a Jeremiah against the increase of child slavery in America, and the consequent appalling increase of illiteracy. Democratic leaders here, in the confidence of Mr. Bell, declare that on this issue they have the enemy in a corner.

"We will not go beyond the statistics compiled by the Republicans themselves, and these figures are damning enough. Where will we be in another decade with a horde of illiterates?" said one of Mr. Bell's friends. "We are going into the field this campaign and save America from socialism. That is what will inevitably come if the Republicans succeed."

Mr. Bell says he will call the attention of the convention to the close connection between the elimination of children from the public schools, which recently formed the subject of a quiet governmental inquiry and report, and the increase in the number of children employed in slaughter houses, mills, mines, factories, etc.

He will produce census reports to prove that the chief offender in respect to child labor is the beef trust. He will picture the daily lives of children employed by the beef trust and will show how they are contaminated by associations which must be demoralizing, degrading and brutalizing.

In the alarming extent of the child labor evil in the United States, as exhibited in census reports, he will suggest there lies the obvious explanation of a fact which Republicans have been well aware ever since they received the report of an investigating committee, namely, that there is a tendency to take children away from school and put them at work as soon as they can command wages.

The report, Mr. Bell will say, will prove conclusively that under "prosperity" at least 2,000,000 children

A few doses of this remedy will invariably cure an ordinary attack of diarrhoea.

It can always be depended upon, even in the more severe attacks of cramp colic and cholera morbus. It is equally successful for summer diarrhoea and cholera infantum in children, and is the means of saving the lives of many children each year. When reduced with water and sweetened it is pleasant to take. Every man if a family should keep this remedy in his home. Buy it now. PRICE, 25c. LARGE SIZE, 50c.

SLAYER GETS 99 YEARS

Killed Former Missouri Woman in Velarde, N. M.

Santa Fe, N. M., June 26.—The sequel to one of the most fiendish murders committed in Northern New Mexico was enacted here yesterday, when David Martinez Sanchez was admitted to the territorial prison to serve a sentence of ninety-nine years for murder.

On November 30, 1907, Miss Jennie Templeton, once a resident of Missouri, a former school teacher, but at the time running a store at Velarde, Santa Fe county, was murdered by Sanchez. Her skull was fractured, the wound having been made with a hatchet.

The trial of Sanchez took place at Tierra Amarilla. When arraigned he pleaded guilty and was immediately sentenced by Judge McFie to spend the remainder of his life in the prison at Santa Fe.

COUPLE GONE; BOAT FOUND

Galesburg Man and Peoria Girl Last Seen on River Tuesday.

Peoria, Ill., June 26.—The finding of an upturned boat in the river adjoining Averyville at 4 o'clock Wednesday morning by clam fishermen and the disappearance of a man and young girl who rented the boat at Virginia Beach at 6 o'clock Tuesday evening has led to all sorts of rumors and conjectures as to what may have occurred on the river front some time Tuesday night.

The young woman is supposed to be Miss Lottie M. Falg, of 375 East Ferris street, Galesburg, and the man William Patterson, who for the past week has been operating a Japanese bowling alley at the park.

W. R. Ward, of Dyersburg, Tenn., writes: "This is to certify that I have used Foley's Orino Laxative for en without a doubt to be a thorough practical remedy for this trouble, and it is with pleasure I offer my conscientious reference." Arlington Pharmacy.

A DELIGHTFUL RECEPTION

It Was Tendered Prof. and Mrs. Geo. V. Buchanan.

A delightful farewell reception was tendered Prof. and Mrs. G. V. Buchanan last night at the home of Mrs. Harry A. Pratt by the members of the Nehemgar club, of which Prof. Buchanan has been president since its organization, eleven years ago.

The Rev. S. S. Martin was chairman of the evening. Dr. H. B. Cole was elected president of the club to succeed Prof. Buchanan, who with his family will remove to Joplin next week, he having been elected superintendent of the schools there at a salary of $2,700 per annum.

The program of the evening consisted of vocal selections by Mrs. Harvey MacGugin and Ord Wood, instrumental selections by Misses Martin and Ellison and select readings by Miss Helen Goodyear.

Prof. Buchanan was presented with a pretty hand-painted souvenir booklet, in which each member of the club had written some appropriate sentiment. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served, and the evening was a most delightful one in every way.

SHE PLEADS UNWRITTEN LAW

Kentucky Mountain Woman Held on Murder Charge.

Jackson, Ky., June 26.—Holding a 5-months-old baby in her arms, Nancy Merrill, a handsome young woman, was arraigned before County Judge Taubee for killing Mary Terry.

The defendant admitted that she killed the Terry woman, her defense being the unwritten law. The testimony was sensational. She was held for murder, but owing to the difficulty of caring for her baby, she was granted bail in the sum of $5,000.

It developed in the case that jealousy was the chief cause of the tragedy. The Merrill woman is a type of the Kentucky mountaineers. She presents a striking appearance. It is claimed that she is a crack rifle shot and could vie with Annie Oakley in that respect.

BRAKEMAN SAVED LIVES

OF MANY PERSONS ON EXPRESS TRAIN, BUT WAS HIMSELF KILLED.

WOMEN WEEP OVER TORN BODY

Youth Had Premonitory Fear That Day Would See Catastrophe—The End Came Yesterday at Paris, Illinois.

Paris, Ill., June 26.—Lawrence Friend, a brakeman, was mangled beneath the wheels of the Knickerbocker special last afternoon after he had saved scores of lives by preventing the fast Big Four passenger train from crashing head-on into a string of freight cars. Friend turned the switch just in time to swing the passenger into a side track, but not quickly enough to get out of the way of the engine. Friend was decapitated and his body dragged several hundred yards before the engineer of the Knickerbocker was able to stop his train.

The passengers for whom the grimy young brakeman had given his life crowded about the body. None of them had seen the heroic action of Friend. The engineer, who had been the sole witness of the brakeman's sacrifice, told them of it. Women who were in the crowd wept and lumps arose in the men's throats.

"I'm pretty sure something's going to happen today," Friend told the men in the railroad yards when he went to work switching freight cars in the morning. "I feel it in my bones, something is going to happen, sure."

The men laughed at him. Ever since his birthday, when he was 23 years old, he made the same remarks now and then, and his comrades had become used to it.

"Just because he is 23 years old he thinks he is up against it," they would say, and pay no further attention to the superstition.

Wednesday Friend was set to work running some cars out of the yards here for a train that was to be sent to Columbus in the night. There were a number of cars and in order to get them all in, the freight engine and several cars had to be run out on the main track, the switch track being too short.

The engine ran out several hundred yards on the track with fifty cars behind it, when the Knickerbocker special from St. Louis, on its way to Indianapolis, came along, traveling forty miles an hour. The Big Four train does not stop here on this run, and there was no slackening of speed as it approached Paris.

Friend was swinging from the ladder on the side of the first car in the rear of the engine when he saw the special. In a flash the danger was clear to him. He dropped from the ladder, and, running around the front of the freight engine, which was moving slowly, he seized the switch handle and turned it.

The passenger shot into the spur and over the body of Friend. The Knickerbocker engine just grazed the nose of the freight, which had no time to back up.

According to the engineer of the freight, the switch was turned barely in time. A fraction of a second delay and the passenger, with its score of passengers, would have crashed into the heavy freight and the loss of life would have been enormous.

Friend lived in St. Louis, but his parents reside in Defiance, O. The body will be shipped there for burial. While in St. Louis Friend resided at the Numa house. He had been working for the Big Four a little over a year.

MRS. MAYBRICK COMING

Famous American Woman Will Speak at Sedalia Chautauqua.

This famous American woman, Mrs. Florence E. Maybrick, was released a few years ago from an English prison, after an unjust confinement of fifteen years. Bereft of her children, stripped of her fortune, she returned to her native land to tell the sad story of her unjust confinement. Fragments of this story have been told in the newspapers and in the leading magazines and in her book, which is having an enormous sale, but the whole story will be told in Mrs. Maybrick's inimitable way at Sedalia Chautauqua on July 1.

No one can hear Mrs. Maybrick's wonderful story without being convinced of her absolute innocence of the terrible crime of which she was charged. Her first lecture was delivered in Dr. C. M. Parkhurst's great church in New York and created a most profound impression, and Dr. Parkhurst commends her message, her innocence and her cause to the American people.

She comes to the Sedalia Chautauqua, not on account of the unfortunate notoriety that has befallen her, but comes solely because she has a real message—a message that will touch the coldest hearts. At times it is the agonizing cry of a mother while denied the sight of her babes, and the innocence of womanhood which has been so outrageously sacrificed beyond endurance. It is an appeal to American hearts and to the American sense of justice and fair play as against the English injustice which has been done her.

KISSES AT $100.00 EACH

ONE WOMAN DONOR AT HOME-OPATHY MEETING OUTWITS DR. BIGGAR.

$5000 FUND WAS QUICKLY RAISED

Dr. Anna Cline, Chased by Rockefeller's Physician, Escapes Unkissed Into Street, in Kansas City, Mo.

Kansas City, June 26.—An offer by Dr. Hamilton Fisk Biggar "John D. Rockefeller's physician," to kiss any woman who would give $100 to the propaganda fund this morning created the merriest time of the Homeopaths' National Convention in Casino Hall.

The fun continued for thirty minutes and $5000 was pledged, enough of it by women doctors to keep Dr. Biggar busy trotting up and down the aisles trying to catch the givers and fulfill his part of the compact.

Dr. Biggar had charge of the movement to raise a fund for a propaganda to advance homeopathy. He started the list with $100 from his own pocket and then made the women delegates take interest by announcing that he would kiss the first woman who gave the same amount.

Dr. Mabel Spencer, of Junction City, Kan., promptly, but blushing rose and said she would contribute $100.

"One moment, please," the white-haired physician from Cleveland cried, "one moment; I'm coming."

Dr. Spencer put forward one hand and Dr. Biggar, bending low, gallantly touched his lips to it, while the convention cheered.

The example set by Dr. Spencer was quickly followed by other women doctors, and amid much cheering Dr. Biggar fulfilled his part of the compact.

After the meeting quieted down the presiding officer announced that the fund was completed. The convention then sang, "Praise God, from Whom All Blessings Flow," and the incident was closed.

ROBBERS EYESIGHT POOR

He Got 15 Cents, but Overlooked Roll of $500.

Danville, Pa., June 26.—Attacked by highwaymen on the river bridge, Charles E. Lidington succeeded in saving $500 that was in his pocketbook, although he was robbed of 15 cents.

Lidington was walking across the bridge with his hands in his trousers pockets. He had in his pocket a wallet containing $500.

Masked men stepped from behind one of the iron pillars and pointed a revolver at him with the command, "Hold up your hands." Lidington's hand closed over his pocketbook, and when he drew his hands from his pockets the money was in one of them.

He held his arms high over his head while the highwaymen searched his clothing and secured 15 cents, and he was allowed to proceed on his way.

Our secondary schools are bad, the primary schools are not better, but it is to the superior school that we must look for the heart of putrefaction. Takes Time.

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable

Almost everybody who reads the news-ommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been tested in so many ways, in hospital

After-Effects of the Grip.
Dr. Clouston of Edinburgh said it seemed as if no disease of whose effects there was any correct record had such far-reaching evil effects as this one, and among its sequelae he enumerated a depressing influence on the whole nervous energy, melancholia, neurasthenic conditions, premature senility, various forms of paralysis, neuragic affections and a general incapacity for work.

HINTS ABOUT DRESDEN CHINA.
Dealers Are on Watch to Swindle Unwary Amateur.

Many of the china figures labeled "Dresden" are only masquerading under that name and are not worthy the price paid for them. Real specimens of "Dresden" are expensive, even the smallest figure costing at least five dollars, and that will be probably a grotesque design. A piece of any artistic merit will be valued at $10 at the lowest. A nine-inch figure or group will be from $40 up. Statues in antique court costume and the celebrated shepherdesses made famous by Hans Christian Andersen are much sought by collectors. The average purchaser without knowledge is apt to think the amount of lace on a figure adds to its value. Except as a finish to the gown, or where it would be legitimately used, this lace filigree should be eschewed, as the rest of the figure generally suffers in the effort to produce so much trimming. Besides such figures are next to impossible to wash, as the meshes become so begrimed with dust, and a brush will break the dainty tracery. One should only buy bits of Dresden at first-class

NOTED FOR HIS PROFANITY.

Lord Thurlow, English Chancellor,
Was Terrible Swearer.

Lord Thurlow, once lord high chancellor of England, was the most terrible swearer that ever lived, and he lived in an age when swearing was regarded as an elegant habit among the elite. He was Keeper of the Conscience of George III. He took to swearing as a lad does who wishes to show that he has arrived at man's estate. It was his ambition to be considered a swearer. With him everything was "damned good," "damned bad," "damned hot," "damned cold," etc. "Damned" was his epithet, his adjective and superlative, his argument, his judgment. To have deprived Thurlow of his "damn" would have been equivalent to shaving off his eyebrows or turning his growl into a whisper.

Sir Hay Campbell, lord advocate, arguing a Scotch appeal to the bar in a very tedious manner, said: "I will noo, my lords, proceed to my seventeenth point." "I'll be damned if you do!"
cried Lord Thurlow, so as to be heard by all present; "this house is adjourned till Monday next," and off he scampered.

BUSY DAY FOR THE CREWS

TOMORROW THEY WILL CONTEST IN REGATTA ON HUDSON RIVER.

WENT THROUGH THE STUNTS TODAY

May Be Fooled About the Weakness of Cornell—The Positions Assigned to the Crews That Are to Enter Race.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., June 26.—Today was a busy one for the crews of Cornell, Pennsylvania, Columbia, Syracuse and Wisconsin, which will tomorrow compete in the intercollegiate regatta on the Hudson, the final classic of the year of college athletics. All of the crews were put through their final stunts, in preparation for the premiere rowing event of America.

Of the three events, the varsity fours will be rowed first, the start to be made as near to 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon as conditions will permit. The crews will row a two-mile race down the stream. The race of the freshman eights will follow over the same course, and the four-mile varsity eight-oared race, the big event of the day, will be the last to start.

The advance guard of the big crowd expected tomorrow poured in to Poughkeepsie today and the hotels are having much trouble in caring for the riotous throng. Colors of all the five institutions are much in evidence and at frequent intervals the Poughkeepsie welkin is split wide open with a booming college yell. Poughkeepsie's annual dissatisfaction against the number of seats on the observation train assigned to citizens is more pronounced than ever and has led to some ill-feeling between the college men and the townsmen.

There is a feeling of jubilation in the camps of the Pennsylvania, Syracuse, Columbia and Wisconsin rowers, owing to the alleged weakness of Cornell. The Ithaca varsity crew is admittedly not so strong as in former years and the Corneliens have some hard work before them if they hope to maintain their Poughkeepsie record. Many prophets declare that the varsity race is likely to go to a dark horse, and each of the four opposing crews is specified by the various experts as the prospective "dark horse." The Columbians are here in force and are making a great deal of noise at what they call their certain victory.

The following positions have been assigned to the different crews in the three events:

Freshmen Eights—Syracuse, 1; Wisconsin, 2; Pennsylvania, 3; Cornell, 4; Columbia, 5.
Varsity Fours—Syracuse, 1; Cornell, 2; Columbia, 3; Pennsylvania, 4.
Varsity Eights—Wisconsin, 1; Cornell, 2; Pennsylvania, 3; Columbia, 4; Syracuse, 5.

Of these places the Syracuse four-oared and freshmen crews are believed to have the most favorable locations in their events, as the ebb tide, which begins about 3 o'clock, is strong along the shore about 4:30, when the first two races are rowed. In the race for varsity eights Pennsylvania and Columbia, in courses three and four, have the best places provided the weather is fair. Cornell's drawings in the two varsity events are good.

The field for the varsity race is much smaller than it has been for several years. The Naval Academy crew, which made last year's entry the largest in the history of the race, numbering seven, announced early in the spring that it would not be allowed to take part in the regatta, but to the surprise of everybody, including the stewards, there was another withdrawal at the last minute—in fact, after the courses had been drawn. Georgetown University decided to withdraw its entry in the varsity race, the only event of the regatta in which the Blue and Gray has ever been represented, and this leaves only Syracuse, Cornell, Pennsylvania, Columbia and Wisconsin to honor of the country. Georgetown, it must be admitted, has never been considered a factor in the race, but nevertheless a field of six crews always made a pretty race, and the Washingtonians will be missed this year, especially as there were many who admired the pluck of a loser coming back to try again and again.

WINONA MUSICAL FESTIVAL

The Sum of $1,300 in Prizes Will Be Awarded.

Winona Lake, Ind., June 26.—Singing societies of Indiana, Ohio and Illinois, each accompanied by its "rooters," are here today to compete in the Winona choral contest for $1,300 in prizes. The first session was held this morning and additional sessions will follow this afternoon and tonight.

Women Who Wear Well

It is astonishing how great a change a few years of married life often make in the appearance and disposition of many women. The freshness, the charm, the brilliancy which like the bloom from a peach which is rudely handled. The matron is only a dim shadow, a faint echo of the charming maiden. There are two reasons for this change, ignorance and neglect. Few young women appreciate the shock to the system through the change which comes with marriage and motherhood. Many neglect to deal with the unpleasant pelvic drains and weaknesses which too often come with marriage and motherhood, not understanding that this secret drain is robbing the cheek of its freshness and the form of its fairness.

As surely as the general health suffers when there is derangement of the health of the delicate womanly organs, so surely when these organs are established in health the face and form at once witness to the fact in renewed comeliness. Nearly a million women have found health and happiness in the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It makes weak women strong and sick women well. Ingredients on label—contains no alcohol or harmful habit-forming drugs. Made wholly of those native American medicinal roots most highly recommended by leading medical authorities of all the several schools of practice for the cure of woman's peculiar ailments.

For nursing mothers or for those broken-down in health by too frequent bearing of children, also for the expectant mothers, to prepare the system for the coming of baby and making its advent easy and almost painless, there is no medicine quite so good as "Favorite Prescription." It can do no harm in any condition of the system. It is a most potent invigorating tonic and strengthening nerve tonic adapted to woman's delicate system by a physician of large experience in the treatment of woman's peculiar ailments.

Consultation by letter free of charge. Address: Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, No. 663 Main Street, Buffalo, N. Y.

The highest prize offered at the Winona contest is $500, which will go to the best mixed chorus. The numbers to be sung are Elgar's "My Love Dwelt in Northern Land," and Handel's "Lift Up Your Hands." There is a prize of $300 for the best male chorus and $250 for the best woman's chorus. There will be many contestants for the prizes for quartettes, duets and recitations.

"A RECIPROCITY TREATY"

MEMBERS OF AMERICAN COMMISSION OFF FOR FRANCE ON THE VADERLAND.

SAIL FROM NEW YORK TOMORROW

On Reaching Paris Will at Once Begin Series of Conferences Looking to New Treaty Between the Two Countries.

Washington, June 26.—When the Vaderland sails from New York tomorrow it will have as passengers the members of the American commission chosen to confer with a similar committee appointed by France to draw up a new reciprocity treaty between the two countries. James B. Reynolds, assistant secretary of the treasury, is chairman of the American commission.

On reaching Paris, the commission will begin immediately the series of conferences with the French commission. Mr. Reynolds recently requested that all persons having commercial intercourse between this country and France favor the commission with suggestions in the interest of trade expansion.

Circulars bearing on the subject were sent to the chief commercial and trade bodies of the country. Many helpful replies have been received and much data of a useful character in framing a new treaty is at hand. While no attempt will be made by the American commission to drive a hard and fast bargain with France, it is understood that many concessions now desired by business interests will be sought.

French wines, works of art, china ware and manufactures generally will figure prominently in the treaty. The commission will probably remain abroad three months.

It brings the little ones that priceless gift of healthy flesh, solid bone and muscle. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea is the best and safest baby medicine. No minerals or alcohol, simply nature's most soothing, healing herbs. 35 cents, tea or tablets. W. E. Bard Drug Co.

LOVE OF THEIR CHILDHOOD

Was Rekindled and an Indiana Couple Are Married.

Columbus, Ind., June 26.—After having been married four times each, George Moore, aged 54, of Stevens county, Washington, and Mrs. Mary Catherine McQueen, aged 50, of Clifford, seven miles east of here, returned to their first love and married each other here.

They are natives of Jackson county, Indiana, and were sweethearts in their childhood. When she was 16 and he 20 they were betrothed, but later had a quarrel, which resulted in his going west, where he is now a wealthy rancher.

Thursday he returned to his old home, and learning that she had but recently become a widow, he went to see her. They plighted their troth, and, coming here, were married.

IRISH EELS BY MILLIONS

Are Being Shipped to Stock the Lakes of Germany.

New York, June 26.—When the North German Lloyd liner Kaiser Wilhelm II, which left this port, reaches Plymouth she will take on board more than 3,000,000 Irish eels, that are to be turned loose in the lakes of Germany.

The ship is fitted with several large tanks in which the eels will be conveyed. The stock of German eels has been decreasing at an enormous rate for years, hence the transfer.

"When St. Patrick drove the snakes out of Ireland they all took to the water," said an officer of the liner. "That's why the Irish eels are the finest in all Europe."

TENNESSEE'S HOT FIGHT

STRENUOUS CAMPAIGN COMES TO CLOSE FOR GUBERNATORIAL NOMINATION.

MANY JOINT DEBATES BEEN HELD

Question of Prohibition Has Been Injected, With Majority of Crusaders Under the Banner of Senator Carmack.

Memphis, Tenn., June 26.—Not in the memory of the oldest Tennessean has this state known so hot a campaign for the governorship as that which closes today, to be followed tomorrow by the democratic primaries, which will decide the victor. Former United States Senator Carmack is the opponent of Governor Patterson, who is seeking re-nomination. Joint debates between the opposing candidates have been held in many places throughout the state and have served to excite the political fever of the voters to a white heat. The question of prohibition has been injected into the campaign, with a majority of the crusaders under the milk white banner lining up with Senator Carmack.

Patterson was first elected for two years on a platform that pronounced for local option, for honest elections and for a repeal of the back assessment law. His defenders declare he has been faithful to his pledges and that he is fairly entitled to another term, by all the rules of precedent.

Carmack, who was senator for six years and who was defeated for a second term, has rallied to his support a majority of the temperance people and the more radical element of the party. His platform is very similar to that of Governor Hoke Smith, of Georgia, who was recently defeated in the primaries of that state. If Carmack should be elected it is likely that a demand for state wide prohibition would immediately follow. The state is already "dry," except for the large cities.

The campaign just closed has been marked by much vituperation and invective on both sides. The records of both candidates have been raked over with a fine tooth comb.

It is alleged that Carmack, who is now supported by the prohibitionists and radical element, once described them as "political vagrants and tramp patriots, as motley a crew as ever trod the deck of a privateer ship, or huddled together in the cave of Adullam." Of the populists, who are now supporting him, Carmack said:

"They are a cussin' club, whose platform is 'dammit.' The prohibitionists, now Carmack's bosom friends, he once denounced as 'a wild-eyed band of patriots made drunk with the rot-gut barragane of demagogue leaders,' and as a 'receptacle for all the refuse and turnip tops of politics.'"

Governor Patterson, too, is accused by the Carmack followers of too abundant language, one of the phrases which has risen to torment him referring to newspaper men as "pin headed editors."

BLACKBIRDS ARE SAVAGE

Thousands, Fighting and Pestiferous, Invade Los Angeles.

Los Angeles, Cal., June 26.—Thousands of savage blackbirds infest the city, and in some of the suburbs they are so bold and vicious that dogs are kept on the jump avoiding them, men on bicycles are sometimes chased for blocks, and pedestrians pecked on the heads if they happen under the trees where there are nests. The birds usually fight in pairs.

If a man with a white hat comes along they swoop down, beat it with their wings, and claw at it with the rage of wounded eagles. Frequently they aim their sharp beaks at the victim's eyes and he has difficulty in defending himself. The painful yelping of cornered canines attracts flocks of birds and then fur flies.

It would be bad for a store if the people were never certain about finding it open for business—if it "skipped" a few days now and then, apprehending dull business. It is only somewhat less bad for a store when the people can never be certain of finding its advertisements in their paper—when it "skips" a few days or weeks now and then in its advertising campaign.

The impression of business prosperity is never given by half-hearted advertising—and, in business, it is not merely DESIRABLE, it is NECESSARY, to give the impression of business prosperity.

SUES WIFE'S TARDY AFFINITY

He Fails to Take Her After She Had Packed Her Clothing.

Sapulpa, Ok., June 26.—J. L. Nichols, a farmer, came before Judge Dye and asked to make complaint against the man who had alienated his wife's affections, and with whom she was going to depart, because the man violated his agreement to come for the woman on the day fixed.

Some time ago Mrs. Nichols found an affinity and so informed her husband. There was an agreement by which she and the other man were to depart together. Mrs. Nichols packed her goods on the day fixed and was ready to go, but the affinity failed to appear.

The woman was heart-broken and her husband sought to temper her grief by making complaint against the affinity for breach of promise.

PANTS GO UP IN SMOKE

Boy With First Trousers Carries Matches in the Hip Pocket.

Philadelphia, Pa., June 26.—With a box of matches in the hip pocket of his first pair of trousers, five-year-old Frank Reading sat down on the stone steps fronting his home at 604 Catharine street. The matches were ignited, and in a moment the lad's trousers were aflame.

The blaze quickly communicated to other wearing apparel. The mother, attracted by his screams, attempted to smother the flames and with the aid of a passerby finally succeeded.

With body and legs badly burned, the boy was hurried to Mt. Sinai hospital. After the physicians had alleviated his sufferings with cooling lotions the boy regained consciousness. His first query was concerning the trousers. His condition is critical.

RUMBLINGS OF THE RAIL

COACH, CAB AND CABOOSE ITEMS

Matters of Interest Picked Up From Various Sources for the Benefit of Democrat-Sentinel Readers.

Bringing his fast express train to a sudden stop to leap from his cab and plunge into the waters of Mud Creek, Engineer J. A. Tynan, by a quick swim and dive, rescued a drowning boy, says a Fond du Lac, Wis., dispatch.

Tynan is a passenger engineer on the Wisconsin Central, and when approaching Mud Creek, near Hilbert Junction, on his run from Manitowoc, he caught sight of the lad seated on the bridge fishing, oblivious of danger. Before the train could be stopped the bridge had been passed. The boy either jumped into the water or was swept off by the train.

When Tynan leaped from his engine the little fellow was struggling in the stream below. The engine driver plunged down the bank into the water, wading, swimming, and finally diving to reach the boy, and emerging a few moments later with him almost exhausted.

The boy was taken to Collins and turned over to a physician, while Tynan, after finishing his run at Fond du Lac, reported the affair in a perfunctory way to his superintendent.

A Carnegie medal will be asked for Tynan by his friends.

A Mix-Up on the Katy.

From the way the trainmen got their trains mixed up here Monday morning, the Katy needs a few more sidetracks, says the Windsor Review. The southbound local, a through freight, a work train going half-hammon, and the southbound passenger were all here at once, the passenger train being detained for an hour while the conductors, engineers, porters and loafers tried to solve the "puzzle" and some of the passengers indulged in some very naughty words.

The passenger train (No. 3) was finally run out on the Davis hill, the local puffed and snorted around like it was full of green apples and the through freight did a half dozen stunts up and down the main line, finally pushing the "crip" work train a mile east, then coming back after the half-train it had left, it pulled out toward the Junction, thus giving No. 3 room to back up to the station.

Yes, Windsor needs either more side track or less trains, or a dispatcher at Sedalia who will not try to get all the rolling stock of the Katy system here at the same time.

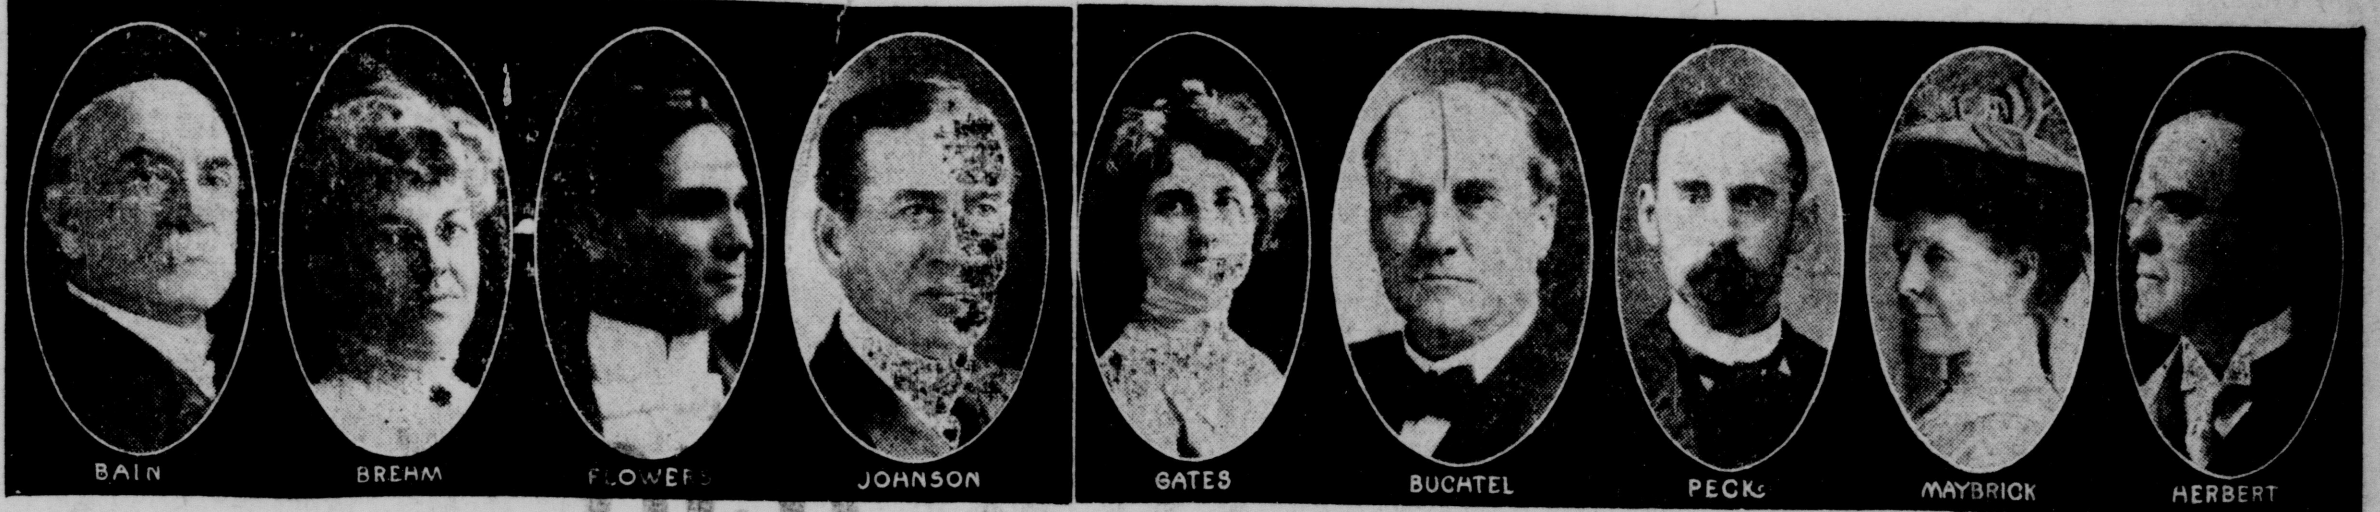

Katy Shops to Reopen July 1.

Master Carbuilder W. A. Mitchell, of the M. K. & T. shops, left last night for St. Louis, and will be absent until Monday.

This morning information was received from company headquarters at St. Louis that the shops here will be reopened with a full force of men on Wednesday, July 1. The order is undoubtedly general all over the system, as the St. Louis Republic of this morning has the following dispatch from Parsons:

"A bulletin was posted at the shops of the Missouri, Kansas & Texas this evening announcing that the shops would open July 1 on full time, and that the employment would be given to all the shop men who would return to work in all the departments.

that time of $50 men who have not been at work since the shops closed, May 16. The Missouri, Kansas & Texas have about 1,700 bad order cars and 150 engines that need repairs and overhauling, and the shops will open July 1 over the entire system.

Mishap on the High Line.

The baggage car, coach and three loaded freight cars on M. K. & T. mixed train No. 516, in charge of Conductor H. N. Reid, with Engineer James in the cab, were derailed on the High line eight miles west of Kansas City Junction at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The cause is unknown.

Peter Vollmer, mail clerk, was painfully, though not seriously, injured about the back and chest, and C. C. Daniels, brakeman, was bruised about his body. Both men were treated by company surgeons.

The wrecking crew was sent from Sedalia and cleared the debris in five hours. The speed of the train lessened the list of injured.

Rumor About the "Katy."

It is also reported that the M. K. & T. railroad has under consideration the abandonment of the route down the river from Franklin Junction, which is flooded with every high water, says the Fayette Advertiser.

In case that route is abandoned it is said they will branch out from Fayette instead of the Junction, and run through Columbia, thus getting up out of the river bottoms all the way to St. Louis.

These would, of course, be expensive changes for the railroad, but in the end no doubt would save them money and trouble.

Missouri Pacific Earnings.

In a New York City dispatch the following railroad earnings are reported:

Missouri Pacific—Third week in June, $679,000; decrease, $187,000. From July 1, $41,975,137; decrease, $3,737,411. Central Branch, Missouri Pacific—Third week in June, $22,000; decrease, $7,000. From July 1, $1,467,165; decrease, $126,095.

Missouri Pacific Bulletins.

Missouri Pacific firemen are requested not to take the staff from operators at Cole Junction while seated in the cab; instead, they are to secure the same while standing on the engine step.

A bulletin today covers the situation with a view of providing safety to the operators, some of whom have had narrow escapes from injury.

Trainmasters Kelly and Barber, of the Missouri Pacific at Jefferson City, today issued a bulletin requesting conductors to water hogs being carried in transit.

Return of an Engineer.

Robert Johnson, a Missouri Pacific engineer, who, on February 22, last, sustained serious injuries in the wreck of a freight train on the hill east of Ottumville, and who since that time has been confined to the company hospital at St. Louis, returned home this afternoon.

He is getting along nicely, although he still utilizes his crutches.

Cars Were Delayed.

The trolley wire of the street railway company on Ohio avenue, between Broadway and Ninth street, broke at 7 o'clock this morning, delaying the operating of cars for about an hour.

railway mail clerk, arrived last night to run on the High line in place of Pete Vollmer, who was injured in yesterday's derailment.

Funeral Service for Former President Without Song, Sermon or Eulogy.

Princeton, June 26.—Without eulogy, sermon or song, and with the simple burial service of the Presbyterian church, the late former President Cleveland will be buried late this afternoon beside the grave of his first born daughter, Ruth.

Although President Roosevelt will be in attendance, as well as Governors Fort, of New Jersey; Hoke Smith, of Georgia, and Hughes, of New York, they will not be present in an official capacity, but only as friends of the late ex-president.

Mrs. Cleveland remained in seclusion during the day and no one but her most intimate friends were permitted to see her. She is doing well and bearing up bravely under the strain. She remained in her room on the second floor of the house next to the room in which the body of her husband lies, but occasionally she went into the latter room. Her stepfather was constantly with her during the greater part of the day. Wagon loads of flowers reached the house as the day advanced.
